

Nebraskans for Civic Reform

Elections and Voting Rights Research Intern: NCR's Voting Rights Program is hiring a research intern for the fall semester. Duties include assisting the Voting Rights Director on research concerning state and federal voting rights issues, attending coalition meetings and training, assisting in presentations and preparing research materials and publications for the 2016 legislative session. Strong research and communication skills required. Please submit resume to Deputy Director Kelsey Arends, kelsey.arends@nereform.org, by September 1st.